Since the inception of the Cranberry League in 1960, has provided a venue for the area's best amateur, collegiate and former professional players, coaches and umpires in South-eastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The Cranberry league is a "wooden bat" league. The Cranberry League is a member of the American Amateur Baseball Congress (AABC) and competes in the "Stan Musial" Division.

2010 marks the 51st Season for The Cranberry League and what better way to celebrate than a day on the golf course. This year we are holding our 1st Annual Golf Tournament at Riverbend Country Club in West Bridgewater to raise money for our leagues' costs and to help out our players out of pocket expenses. Register now to ensure your foursome for the kick off of our annual golf outing.
